

I am very concerned that Sinclair Broadcasting is requiring local stations to broadcast a documentary biased against John Kerry two weeks before the Presidential election.

Television stations using our airwaves free of charge should not be permitted to broadcast one-sided information to the public. It is a danger to democracy.

Please ensure that the media is behaving responsibly with the trust and free access we give them.

Thank you,
Jamie Appel